

Israel Refugee Day

Sephardi Voices presents

The IRAQI JEWISH VOICES PROJECT

Thursday, November 30th | 5:00 – 6:45 p.m.

AVENTURA TURNBERRY JEWISH CENTER

20400 NE 30th Ave. | Aventura, FL 33180 | Indich Auditorium

5:00 p.m. Reception

5:30 p.m. Presentation

Iraqi Jewish Voices tells the story of the last generation of Iraqi Jews through dramatic current and historical photography, film, and personal narrative. It is a project of Sephardi Voices, whose mission is to collect and archive the life stories of the Sephardi/Mizrahi and to raise awareness of their loss of human rights.

Featuring Special Guest Speakers

TAMAR MORAD

*co-editor Iraq's Last Jews, who will speak about the
Iraqi Jewish Voices Project*

PROFESSOR

HENRY GREEN

who will speak about the mission of Sephardi Voices

CAROLE BASRI

*An Iraqi-American lawyer, who will speak about
human rights*

Tamar Morad is a writer who previously worked at the Wall Street Journal, the Jerusalem Post, and Haaretz. She has taught journalism at Boston University, Brandeis University, and Ithaca College and is currently head of donor communications at the Weizmann Institute of Science. She lives in Israel.

Dr. Henry Green, Professor Religious Studies, is the former Director of Judaic and Sephardic Studies at the University of Miami, Founding Director of the Jewish Museum of Florida and of Sephardi Voices. He has given testimony to the U.S. Congressional Human Rights Caucus and was involved in the Knesset legislation that established Israel Refugee Day (November 30th).

THIS EVENT IS FREE AND OPEN TO ALL!

RSVP by calling (305) 937-1880 or

E-Mail RSVP@atjc.org

OR info@sephardivoices.com