ABOUT THE CHARLES C. PAPY, JR. MOOT COURT BOARD

The Charles C. Papy, Jr. Moot Court Board is a student-run, honorary organization that focuses on recruiting and training the finest oral and written advocates in the country. It is the oldest, largest, and most prestigious advocacy program at the University of Miami School of Law.

Application to the Charles C. Papy, Jr. Moot Court Board is open to second- and third-year students of the University of Miami School of Law who have demonstrated excellence in written and oral advocacy. Each fall semester, the Board hosts the John T. Gaubatz Competition to determine the incoming class of moot court board candidates. Competitors register in pairs, file an appellate brief, and argue in at least two oral rounds.

Local and national alumni, and friends of the University of Miami School of Law volunteer to judge the competition and help the competitors hone their oral advocacy skills.

BECOME A JUDGE

To judge the John T. Gaubatz Moot Court Competition you must be a practicing attorney in good standing. Be available to dedicate at least three hours (at your leisure) prior to the competition to review the competition problem, bench brief and grading rubric. On Saturday, October 17th, be available to judge virtually for 90 minutes at least one round either in the morning or afternoon. Be prepared to ask the competitors questions and grade them individually after the round is over by submitting the provided grading rubric online.
