

PRE-DOCTORAL APPLICATIONS ARE OPEN THROUGH AUG 1!

CHANGE

Training Program

We are recruiting 1 predoctoral trainee to start Fall 2023 with the T32 Training Program here at the University of Miami called CHANGE - Culturally-focused HIV Advancements through the Next Generation for Equity.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Directed by Drs. Daniel Feaster, Sannisha Dale, and Viviana Horigian, and housed under the UM Center for HIV and Research in Mental Health (CHARM), CHANGE offers a great opportunity to develop the next generation of researchers with the expertise to successfully address HIV and Mental Health disparities throughout the HIV prevention and treatment cascades using community-engaged research, implementation, and dissemination.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- Internal UM applicants who are enrolled or accepted in PhD programs in Public Health or Psychology Fall 2023
- US Citizen
- Demonstrate commitment to developing research careers to address mental and HIV inequities in Black, Latinx/e/o, and LGBTQ+ communities

APPLICATION COMPONENTS

- CV
- 3 academic references
- Recommendation Letter(s)
- Unofficial Transcript
- Applicant Statement

INTERESTED?

To find out more,
request a consultation with the directors, and submit your application, visit our website
CHARM.MIAMI.EDU/CHANGE/

or email us at
CHANGE-program@miami.edu